

LYNN (ZEA) AYMAR

May 1, 2012

When my neighbor Jim Hopper asked me if I'd like to come to work for him at a place called Monsanto, I asked him what I would be doing. "Testing little red light bulbs", he said.

I started at Monsanto in 1973 on the assembly line on Bubb Road in Cupertino, and eventually ended up as the receptionist in the Personnel department working alongside Dottie Sedergren. Fritz Hannah was the personnel manager at that time. Once we moved up to Palo Alto, I worked for Dr. Harold Allen as his secretary, and then transferred back to Personnel working for Jerry Lazenby.

In 1978 I left Monsanto and took a job with Intel Corporation. I met my husband, Mike Aymar, while working at Intel and we have 2 daughters and 2 grandchildren. I retired from Intel in 1983 to be a stay-at-home full time Mom.

We live in Los Gatos, CA and we spend our time traveling and enjoying our grandchildren. We are so lucky they only live 4 blocks from us.

I'm looking forward to the reunion and seeing colleagues after so many years!

Lynn and daughter Erin (Mother's Day 2010)